EASTER MESSAGE 2024

MARCH 28, 2024

“So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone for they were afraid.” That’s where the Gospel of Mark originally ended. And it just seems so odd to me. It’s so abrupt. I mean, the women had seen the angel. He’d announced that Jesus was raised from the dead, and then he tells them all this good news and wants them to go on their way. And they just are not going to say a single word.

There are three words in that passage that really stand out for me, especially in the Greek. One is fear—phobos. We get phobia from that. The other one is amazement—ekstasis. We get ecstasy from that. And the other one has to do with being seized. It actually means “being possessed.” So we take a look at these women, and they’ve had this miraculous appearance by an angel. They’ve heard the good news that Jesus has raised from the dead, and they’re too afraid to do anything about it, and they just are going to be silent. It seems that nothing changed. They came to take care of Jesus’ dead body because on the Sabbath they could not work. But on the first day of the week, they were there. They have this announcement, and then it’s all the same.

Sometimes I think we feel like nothing’s changed. Sometimes I think that the events in our country, in our church, around the world are just so terrifying and so overwhelming that it seems like the resurrection really didn’t make a difference. But these three words really say something about the women, and I think about us and, most especially, about Easter. When they said that they were filled with amazement—this is this ecstasy, ekstasis—they were really standing. It means literally standing in a different place. So though they were still in the tomb and they hadn’t reacted yet, nevertheless, everything had changed.

And because of the resurrection, we, all of us, are standing in a different place. The whole of creation is standing in a different place. And the word for fear, phobos, phobia we get from that. But it’s really a sense of trembling in the presence of God, of awe that they were actually filled with awe—not paralyzed by fear but filled with awe. And I hope this Eastertide and all year round, we have a sense of the presence of God that fills us with awe.

And it also says that they were seized with fear. Well, the word means “possessed.” And yes, we believe that in baptism because of the resurrection, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit and we now are all Spirit-possessed.

When things seem to be staying the same, when things seem to be happening and coming at us so quickly, I think it’s very important to take time to be a little amazed, to be standing in a different place, to have a sense of this awe and trembling before the Lord, and to allow ourselves to be possessed by the Spirit, who will give us power and courage in these times.

My favorite hymn is “Lord Jesus, You Shall Be My Song.” It’s ELW 808. And the last verse goes like this: “I fear in the dark and the doubt of my journey; but courage will come with the sound of his steps by my side. And with all of the family Jesus saved by his love, we’ll sing to his dawn at the end of our journey.”

Be well, dear church. Happy Easter.

When we stripped the altar on Maundy Thursday, we also stripped the leaves off the tree symbolizing the stripping of the life of an innocent man. On Good Friday, the Tree of Life transformed into a cross. Easter Sunday services were well attended with the majority of worshipers at the 9:30 service.

Our Savior's WELCA met Thursday, April 4, 2024 with President Sylvia Hansen presiding.

Pastor Joe led the Bible Study on Acts 3:1-10. The post resurrection message. What happens after resurrection. Good things happen! The start of ministry in a different way. The Christian outreach message of feeding my sheep. We are reminded of prayer and worship. We are better together than alone. It takes a village to care for man. We are to be generous in tending the poor and hungry. What we are doing is in the name of Jesus Christ; like the name of our church- Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Healing happens through God, excitement after healing.

Table Prayer was said before Coffee served by Sarah Workgroup.

The business meeting was opened with Prayer and Purpose Statement. The Minutes were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was reviewed and approved.

THANK YOU to all of the WELCA members who made donations to complete these projects.

OSLC Senior Choir

It has been a wonderful Choir season! We sang hymns at the Traill County Historical Society Fall Festival, shared our thanks to God in November, had an amazing Community Christmas Concert, were blessed to share a reverent song of honor Good Friday and then a song of praise and Hallelujah at Easter, rejoiced at God's love and grace for us all with I Love You (From an Old Rugged Cross) and all the other times we got together to share our love of music with each other, the congregation and especially with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! It has been a wonderful year! Thank you to all the singers for sharing your time and talent. You let your light shine brightly before others to glorify your Father in Heaven.

Thank you to the congregation for your kind words of encouragement and appreciation. It means a lot to have your support.

Choir will take a break and resume practices in September. Have a fantastic summer!

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.

Romans 15:5-7 (NIV)

GosBELLS

Thank you, GosBELLS, for all your time and dedication to making this a fun and successful season of ringing! We started practicing in September and went strong through the Community Christmas Concert. Then we got back together to ring praise for Easter and into April. It is such a blessing to laugh and share time with each other and to make music together each week. You are all so much fun! I appreciate each of you.

Thank you to the congregation for your kind words of encouragement and appreciation. It means a lot to have your support.

Bell Choir will take a break and resume practices in September. Have a fantastic summer!

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:14-16 (NIV)

I have had some communications this month, some good and some not so good news. I visited with Bethany Krepela, from Lutheran Partners in Global Ministry. She did a presentation at the WELCA Synod gathering on April 20. The Empowering Women and Girls project in the CAR is up and running, with 80 participants. They are using the schools, which were built some years ago for children's classes, but many of them are no longer operating. There has been some disruption from time to time because of violence by various groups. We are hoping for an update from there. This is a tremendous boost to the women and girls in CAR. They will receive 170 hours of lessons in Sango and French. Simply put, as women and girls are taught to read and write, they will have a better chance at rising out of poverty and will teach their children, future children and communities. Invest in a woman's education and everyone around her will benefit.

In the days after Easter, a number of members (reportedly 16) of the Lutheran church in Bohong were murdered while working out in their fields. The church there is trying to offer support to their families. Some CAR refugees are returning to CAR, despite the concerns and danger; as life in the refugee camps is also difficult. Others have nothing to return to and are destitute. I am including a news article for you to read about some of the difficulties facing these people. KEEP THEM IN YOUR PRAYERS.

Central African Republic: CAR Child Refugees Dream of a Better Future

allAfrica.com

By Ngala Killian Chimtom

More than a million people, including children, have fled their homes in the volatile Central Africa Republic to Cameroon. Not all have given up hope.

A bus throws up dust as it rumbles away from the sprawling expanse of the refugee camp at Gado-Badzere in eastern Cameroon. It's heading to the war-ravaged Central African Republic (CAR), just some 30 km (19 miles) away.

Inside the bus is a group of nearly 300 refugees who have chosen to return to their homeland.

Secondary school student Abdel Aziz is among those being voluntarily repatriated. He and his mother fled fighting the fighting in CAR five years ago; Aziz's father is believed dead.

Despite the country's turmoil, 16-year-old Aziz is determined to return home. He wants to continue his schooling and be part of the solution to the crisis afflicting his country.

"Now, I aspire to become a criminal investigative police officer to help fight crimes in society, like the war in the Central African Republic," Aziz told DW, before climbing the bus.

Many are too scared to return

But Yolanda, whose name has been changed by DW to protect her privacy, and her daughter won't be returning. "Seleka rebels raided my home. They raped me and they raped my 14-year-old daughter," Yolanda told DW. "Since I was a Christian before converting to Islam, I have become a target of the Seleka as well as the anti-Balaka. Both sides see me as a danger for them."

Rights organizations such as Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch have documented extensive cases of systematic rape at the hands of Seleka and anti-Balaka rebels and other armed groups.

Her daughter said returning would also be difficult because they don't have family there anymore.

While the 14-year-old diligently studies for her GCE Ordinary Level at the camp, her real dream lies beyond the classroom. She envisions a future where she can make a difference by helping young girls who, like her, have endured the harrowing realities of war.

"I want to become a councilor to guide young girls traumatized by war," she said. "I thank God for protecting us to come out alive in this war. That is why I want to become a councilor to sensitize children to certain things."

More than a decade of violence

Central African Republic has been engulfed in conflict since 2013, when an alliance of predominantly Muslim rebels, known as Seleka, forced President Francois Bozize from office.

The Seleka rebels unleashed violence upon Christians, leading Christian youths to organize themselves into a militia known as the anti-Balaka. Despite the eventual ousting of the Seleka faction, a cycle of tit-for-tat violence persists between the two groups.

Meanwhile, the central government grapples with asserting its influence beyond the capital, Bangui. The situation has improved "in some areas in early 2024," finds a recent UNICEF report.

As a result of the volatile security situation, one in five of the country's 5.5 million population are displaced within and across CAR's borders.

In addition to the more than 500,000 internally displaced, some 725,000 people are seeking refuge in neighboring countries, with around 300,000 in Cameroon.
